ETHICS STATEMENT

As a sales professional under the registration of First American Payment Systems, L.P. you are required to maintain the highest ethical standards and professional conduct at all times. First American Payment Systems, L.P. recognizes the need to provide you with consistent guidelines to achieve this goal, therefore, the following Ethics Statement has been formulated. Signing this Ethics Statement is a condition of participation in the program and must be strictly adhered to at all times.

- I will fully disclose to each prospective customer that I am representing First American Payment Systems, L.P. and will fully disclose to the customer the name and location of First American Payment Systems, L.P. as the provider of bankcard processing services.
- I will maintain the highest standards of professionalism and will comply with the company policy at all times.
- I will not broker any sales to any other party nor sell any products or services that are not offered by First American Payment Systems, L.P. without their written consent.
- I understand and agree that all advertising and marketing materials must receive prior approval according to card plan, bank and company policy, and all business cards must be approved by First American Payment Systems, L.P.
- I will adhere to simple truth and integrity and will not engage in any misleading or deceptive sales practices.
- I will provide sound professional advice in all sales presentations and sales calls and will remain knowledgeable of industry services and specifically the services of First American Payment Systems, L.P.

- I will conduct due diligence and complete all site inspections truthfully. I will accurately report the nature of any business in which a prospective customer is engaged. I will promptly report to my regional manager or to an appropriate person at the corporate office any notice which I may receive of any change in any customer's business which might expose the company to financial risk or be out of compliance with stated policies.
- I will quote all rates and charges consistent with First American Payment Systems, L.P.'s rate guidelines and will not quote rates for other card types that I am not specifically registered to market.
- I will not accept any payment in cash from a customer or prospective customer and will assure that all checks are properly made out to the company and not to me personally.
- I will conduct all sales presentations in a positive manner relying upon my ability and the value of First American Payment Systems, L.P.'s services to obtain customers. I will not in any way demean or speak negatively of my competition.
- I will maintain the confidentiality of information provided to me by any prospect or customer or the company and will not reveal any such information without the proper consents or except to the company and its agents.

COMPLIANCE AWARENESS FORM

As a sales professional under the registration of First American Payment Systems, L.P. you are responsible for remaining apprised of all applicable rules and regulations issued by MasterCard and Visa as they pertain to Member Service Providers/Independent Sales Organizations. Additionally, you must operate within these guidelines at all times or risk immediate termination from the program.

Following for your review is a summary of some of the pertinent rules under which all MSP/ISO's must operate. By signing this form, you acknowledge that you have read these items below and understand them.

- All marketing material (including stationary and business cards), and advertising must clearly represent the name of the participating bank and the MSP/ISO, and be approved by member prior to actual use.
- Using the services of non-registered organizations or brokers to solicit merchants is strictly prohibited.

3. Only registered sales agents may disclose pricing and details of the MasterCard and Visa programs. All pricing and details must be clearly represented as being offered on behalf of First American Payment Systems, L.P.

- All components of pricing must be clearly disclosed to the merchant.
- Site inspections must be completed accurately and in person by the sales agent who solicited the merchant.
- Final approval of all applications requires the bank's acceptance. Sales agents may not imply or infer that acceptance by bank is guaranteed.
- Merchants whose type of business is clearly outside the established credit policy must not be solicited or induced into paying application fees.
- Application fee checks must be made out to the participating MSP/ISO; not to the sales agent or accepted in cash.

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT THE ABOVE INFORMATION PROVIDED IS ACCURATE AND COMPLETE. I AUTHORIZE FIRST AMERICAN PAYMENT SYSTEMS, L.P. TO INVESTIGATE MY CREDIT AND EMPLOYMENT HISTORY, OBTAIN CREDIT REPORTS AND RELEASE INFORMATION ABOUT THEIR CREDIT EXPERIENCE WITH ME.

	7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.
Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
